U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
OFFICE OF EXPERIMENT STATIONS.

CIRCULAR NO. 14.

WASHINGTON, D. C., OCTOBER 28, 1889.

DEAR SIR :

The Office of Experiment Stations is heartily interested in furthering meetings of station specialists and others engaged in similar lines of work, and therefore takes pleasure in calling attention to the accompanying letter from Prof. John B. Smith, Secretary of the recently formed Association of Official Economic Entomologists.

It is believed that such conferences as the one here proposed will bring a large return for the time and money expended, by opening new ways for co-operation and by stimulating the suggestion of new lines and methods of work.

Respectfully,

W. O. ATWATER,
Director.

Approved :

EDWIN WILLITS,
Assistant Secretary

NEW BRUNSWICK, NEW JERSEY,
OCTOBER 22, 1889.

DEAR SIR :

At the Toronto meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Association of Official Economic Entomologists, after organizing, resolved that the "first annual meeting of the Association be held at the place where the Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations next meets and at the same time."

The time and place of meeting for the latter association having been fixed for November 12, 1889, at the City of Washington, you are hereby notified that the first annual meeting of the Association of Official Economic Entomologists will be held at the City of Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of November, 1889, at eleven o'clock, A. M., at the Department of Insects, United States National Museum.

All those entitled to membership, who have not yet communicated with the Secretary will please do so at once, if they desire to be added to the list of members.

Members intending to present papers will confer a favor upon the Secretary if they will send him the titles of their communications as soon as possible.

Yours,

JOHN B. SMITH,
Secretary.

Rutgers College.
